ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

“Opening the doors of Christ's love:
an inviting, embracing and serving community offering Good News in the midst of a confusing world.”

April 5, 2015

You spend a few days walking around London, you inevitably end up at any number of grand churches and Cathedrals. If you are an Episcopalian, one essential visit has to be Westminster Abbey. Built on the site of an ancient monastery, you have this grand building next to Britain's Parliament. This large Ferris wheel called the London Eye takes you high above the River Thames, Shakespeare's rebuilt Globe theater, and Center city London. Then, back on the ground, enter into the Abbey. What amazed our family several years ago when we visited the Abbey were the overwhelming number of sarcophagus and tablets commemorating the lives of the deceased great from English History. In order to find a seat, you must literally walk over the final resting place of hundreds of people...many of whom appear in life-like marble images next to wherever you might be sitting. Many of these stones commemorate the military leaders of this little island kingdom, as well as its political leaders, poets, kings and queens. In one corner is a plaque remembering Lord Wellington and his battles on the fields of Europe for king and country. There is a well-known story that accompanies that crucial battle. In 1815 the English nation waited to hear the results of what they knew could be a critical event in their history. Wellington was facing Napoleon on a field in Belgium. Had Wellington's forces been victorious? The news was to flash across the channel from signal tower to boat to hill, until it reached London. Finally the flags began to wave. Letters began to be formed. The message said, “Wellington Defeated.” English hearts sank in despair. They had lost! Could you imagine? The cuisine might improve, but teaching French to your children? But wait, another word is added; “Napoleon.” Wellington Defeated Napoleon. What a difference one word can make.

The message on Friday was “Jesus Conquered.” But wait. The message is still coming. “Jesus Conquered Death.” The tomb is empty, He is Risen. Joy conquers despair. So-so fishermen, women of the world, and tax collectors, become the models of a new way to discipleship. Ordinary citizens discover they have extraordinary powers. The community bubbles over with love of life and one another. And even when they are eventually hauled off to prison and destruction, they continue to sing praises to a God who listens. Their courage and acts of faith become so powerful that jailors become converts; nobodies, somebodies. Life, defeats death. Thanks Be to God!
