Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 3, 2015

Prelude

Processional Hymn

God Is Love, Let Heav'n Adore Him

Hymnal #379

1. God is Love, let heav'n adore him
God is Love let earth rejoice
Let creation sing before him
And exalt him with one voice
God who laid the earth's foundation
God who spread the heavens above
God who breathes through all creation
God is Love, eternal Love
2. God is Love and love enfolds us
All the world in one embrace
With unfailing grasp God holds us
Every child of every race
And when human hearts are breaking
Under sorrow's iron rod
Then we find that self-same aching
Deep within the heart of God
3. God is Love and though with blindness
Sin afflicts all human life
God's eternal loving kindness
Guides us through our earthly strife
Sin and death and hell shall never
O'er us final triumph gain
God is Love so Love forever
O'er the universe shall reign

What Wondrous Love Is This

Hymnal #439

1. What wondrous love is this,
O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss
To lay aside his crown
for my soul, for my soul,
To lay aside his crown for my soul.
2. To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing, I will sing;
To God and to the Lamb, I will sing.
To God and to the Lamb
Who is the great "I Am";
While millions join the theme,
I will sing, I will sing;
While millions join the theme, I will sing.
3. And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;
And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on.
And when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joyful be;
And through eternity, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;
And through eternity, I'll sing on.

come, Holy Spirit, come.

From the Associate Rector

As spring arrives and signs of new life erupt all around us, we hear the message that Jesus is the vine, God is the vine grower, and we are also vines, being prepared to bear much fruit. Bruno Barnhart suggests that we remain rooted in Christ.

“The Word is a tree which was in the world in the beginning, and when humanity sinned at the tree and at the tower they were banished from that unitive tree of the Word. But this light of the Word is their life, and without it they die.

“The human person is a tree which bears the light, the Word, within itself. Speaking, naming, witnessing, preaching, confessing, from Adam to the Baptist to Jesus to Thomas, this is the human vocation in the world: to give witness to the truth. The man born blind, receiving his light from Jesus, witnessed to the light that now had been born within him.

“The fullness of this unitive tree is in Jesus, and now with his own disciples he pours out this fullness: the tree of the Word finds its fullest expression, comes into its roundness, bears its fruit. ‘Abide in me’: root yourselves in this central place, and remain rooted here, and my life will flow through you and bear fruit in the world.”

How are we rooted in Christ? Are our roots deep enough? Do we have enough exposure to the light of the Word? Do we allow God in, to prune us to be our most fruitful? Spring is a wonderful season to consider these questions, and to allow something new to be born in us.

Blessings this spring and always, Rev. Meredith
