

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

“Opening the doors of Christ’s love:
an inviting, embracing and serving community
offering Good News in the midst of a confusing world.”

October 30, 2016

From the Rector

All Saints Day which we will celebrate Nov. 6th, first appeared in the Antioch Church around the early fourth century as a day to honor the Church's martyrs. Originally occurring on the first Sunday after Pentecost, All Saints Day was adopted by the Western Church in the early seventh century by Pope Boniface IV, who designated the May 13th for its observance.

In the ninth century, the All Saints Day celebration was modified to include all saints, becoming a church-wide observance of the Feast of All Saints on November 1st. All Saints Day coincided with the beginning of the festival to honor the dead. That night, known as All Hallows Eve (or Halloween), retains many of the old European traditions.

Lutherans and Episcopalians remember the day by giving thanks to God for all saints, living and dead. It is one of the feast days for Baptism, and the color is traditionally white. The Orthodox Churches continue to honor all Christian martyrs on the first Sunday after Pentecost. Throughout Latin America, especially in Brasil, Dia de los Muertos, or the Day of the Dead, is a two-day celebration that combines Catholic tradition and pre-Columbian culture. The first day is dedicated to "angelitos" (little angels), who are infants and children that have died. Adults who have died are memorialized on the second day. Common traditions include family gatherings at local cemeteries, and parades exhibiting elaborate wreaths, seasonal flowers, and macabre effigies of skeletons. Within the Church, the day is specifically dedicated to martyrs and saints, with prayers and litanies offered for their faithful service to God.

Pledge Early and Enter to Win 2 tickets to Capitol Steps Benefit for UCM. UCM's Annual Capitol Steps Benefit will take place on Sunday, November 13, in Alexandria. It is anticipated that this will be an exciting concert (taking place right after the election) and will benefit a worthwhile local organization. Today, all pledges received to date will be entered into a raffle to win 2 tickets to this event.

Vestry Every Member Campaign Commitment: “We’re All In.” The Vestry at St. Mark’s have each prayerfully committed to give mindfully and proportionally, and have submitted their pledge cards. Please follow their lead as you discern how God is calling you to walk more broadly into the generous path He gives others through us. Join us in the commitment. Dedication Sunday is November 13th. Please return your pledge cards by that day!

Prayer for an Election

Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges: Guide the people of the United States in the election of officials and representatives; that, by faithful administration and wise laws, the rights of all may be protected and our nation be enabled to fulfill your purposes; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. BCP
