ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

“Opening the doors of Christ's love:
Offering Good News in the midst of a confusing world.”

September 17, 2017

A Note from the Rector

The Communion Prayer for today is again from “Eucharistic Prayers,” by Samuel Wells & Abigail Kocher. “Too often, what should be the most dynamic moment of a congregation's liturgical life becomes a low-energy, low-engagement event. Tying the sacramental rite to the words of Scripture for the day, these theological, pastorally fitting, and linguistically satisfying prayers change the Great Thanksgiving prayer from a lull in the liturgy to a focused, fresh, and engaged moment for the congregation.”

The Sursum Corda and the People's "Amen" at the close of the Eucharistic Prayer have always been common elements to all Eucharistic prayers. Other elements common to the Eucharistic Prayers in Rite One and Two include:

- The Opening Dialogue: "Lift up your Hearts."
- The Praise and Thanksgiving (in this book, it changes every week)
- The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy)
- The Apostolic Constitution (where one is invited to stand or kneel)
- The Institutional Narrative: "For in the night He was betrayed"
- The Memorial Acclamation "We remember His death, we proclaim His Resurrection, and we await his coming in Glory."
- Anamnesis (the opposite of amnesia): "To know who you are, to whom you belong, and where you are headed, you must remember."
- The Oblation: "Remembering His death and resurrection, we offer you the bread and the cup."
- The Epiclesis or Invocation (when we invoke the Holy Spirit over the elements)
- The Doxology: "Through your son Jesus Christ, through whom be glory and honor to you."
We finish with "Amen!" or "So Be It!"

Announcements

Episcopal Relief and Development Organization Offering: The Episcopal Relief and Development Organization of the Episcopal Church, a long established and trusted relief agency, is still receiving funds for South Texas, Florida and Louisiana. An envelope is provided in today's Sunday bulletin for any gifts you may like to make.

First and Third Wednesdays of the Month Potluck: We want to invite St. Mark's people to join Fairfax County's Nurturing Parent's Program for potluck and fellowship the first and third Wednesday of the month, beginning October 4th. Under the tutelage of Kathy Hughes, we will provide a main course, i.e. lasagna, baked chicken or meatloaf and we invite the parish family to come with a salad or desert. Dinner will start at 6:15-6:30 and finish by 7:00. Spanish language classes in parenting will begin at 7:00 and we will clean up and make our way home. The first dinner, September 20th, will be hosted by the Rector grilling hot dogs and hamburgers for everyone. Come and join us!

Acolytes: There will be an acolyte training/refresher on Sunday, September 24, after the 10:00am service in the sanctuary. All current acolytes and those interested in serving should attend. For more information, see Pam Hamrin or Jeanne Shafer.

Christmas Pageant: In anticipation of the Christmas Pageant (it will be here before you know it), we ask that as you are doing your end of season clothes sorting/donating, you look for bathrobes (for shepherds) and graduation gowns (for angels or wise men depending upon the color). Donations can be given to any Sunday School teacher. Thanks in advance for your assistance.

Parish Pictorial Directory: If you did not have your family photograph taken for our Parish Directory, we are having a make-up session on Sunday, October 22nd from 11:30-6:00pm. More sign-up information to follow.

Lay Reader and Lector Training: The training will be held today at 11:15 am.

Women of the Spirit: Are you interested in coming together this fall? If so, please see the Rector.

“Invite, Welcome and Connect”: Our area Episcopal Churches are hosting a conversation on how to build communities of hospitality, Saturday, Oct 7th at St. Mark's. We need hosts and greeters to join us this day. The theme is to create worship communities of welcome and incorporation.

Do you have church keys? If you have keys to the church doors that you no longer need, please turn them in to the office or to the clergy. Please put your name with the keys so we can remove your name from the key log. If you have a key and still need it, please let the office know.

Sunday School: Children's Sunday School will begin today!

Outreach: Please check board in the Narthex to see upcoming opportunities. As St. Mark's parishioners, positively engage our community by reaching out!
