Why Go on a Mission Trip? Group Ministries Responds...

Not everyone can pack up all their belongings and become missionaries, but many of us can go on short-term mission trips. If you've never tried it, I encourage you to consider these benefits of taking the compassion of Jesus to another culture:

1. You will encounter God's heart. Our God is big. He's a global God. And His ultimate goal is to gather a family that represents "every tribe and tongue and people and nation" (Rev. 5:9).
2. You will expand your perspective. Too many of us are stuck in spiritual ruts. Every now and then you need to step out of your comfort zone and allow God to stretch you. And expect to learn from the people you are going to minister to.
3. You will be become more grateful. I come back from my trips with a renewed appreciation for life's little blessings—air conditioning, running water, and flush toilets. There's nothing like spending time away to put your puny problems in perspective.
4. You will discover your spiritual family. When you minister alongside Christians, you find that the Holy Spirit bonds us together supernaturally. This is the same type of bond the apostle Paul felt with the people he met in Greece, Italy and Asia Minor during his travels.
5. You will build lasting partnerships. God gives us this strong bond so we will link arms and work for a common purpose across racial and cultural lines.
6. You will overcome your fears. I guarantee you will have more spiritual confidence when you gets back home.
7. You will expand the kingdom of Jesus. The Great Commission was not a suggestion. Christ's kingdom cannot be built without bold, radical obedience to Matthew 28:19: "Go therefore..." Somebody has to GO. There's no way around it. To share the gospel with the whole world, we must be willing to pack our bags sometime and leave home. Of course not everyone can hop on a plane and go for 7-10 days. Some people have health limitations or family pressures that make travel impractical. Instead remember that those who can't go to the mission field physically can go through prayer or financial support. And the reward will be the same.

World Refugee Day June 20th: On World Refugee Day, held each year on June 20th, we celebrate the strength, resilience and courage of refugees worldwide. The Episcopal Church is deeply committed to the work of welcome and refugee settlement and stands with families forced to flee. Every minute, 20 people leave everything behind to escape war, persecution or terror. There are currently over 65.6 million refugees, asylum seekers and internally displaced people worldwide. Of that number, more than 22.5 million are refugees and more than half are children.

Shrine Mont 2018: Please mark your calendars for the Shrine Mont Retreat to be held August 10-12, 2018. For more information, please contact The Rev. Donna Foughty.
